HB's Lounge is looking for talent over the next five weeks.

Beginning Feb. 18, the Holiday Bowl lounge is combining the Gong Show and Let's Make a Deal, so they are looking for performers, singers, pickers, comedians and anybody else with an unusual talent they want to show off, Thursday nights.

Participants are asked to register in advance by calling HB's Lounge at 403-328-2855 or stopping by in person the day before the show.

A panel of judge will decide which performer wins the grand prize of $516.32.

The audience can win as well through a variety of audience participation activities. Last year, Steven Parsons and 'Freddies' Freak Show' won the prize.
