

Local musicians and Meester Lethbridge raise money for sick kids

Written by Richard Amery

Wednesday, 06 October 2010 12:49 -

The last gig I caught was Meester Lethbridge's birthday party, which was at the Owl Acoustic Lounge, Oct. 2.

The open stage was designed as a fundraiser for the sick kids ward at the Lethbridge Regional Hospital.

Several musicians got on stage to play an array of covers including Steven Foord, Jen Baily, Bridgette Yarwood and Dino Scavo and some impressive bass soloing from Felipe Rodriguez.

They raised approximately $200 for a good cause.

— By Richard Amery, L.A. Beat Editor

{jcomments on}